ROW 2: Tom Boyer, Judi Jackson, Janet Scott, Janet Ritterbusch, Johnnie Geisler, Jim Brooks.

If we were to describe an active and important participating student organization of Fox High, the Ha-Ko Staff would be a perfect example. Its purpose, to produce an outstanding yearbook of which the students and school can be proud, is carried out by the members of the staff to the fullest extent of their ability.

Our yearbook contains the combined efforts of a group of students numbering about twenty, who are trying to produce a piece of work that will symbolize students of Fox High and what they can really do.

Overseeing the production of the Ha-Ko is James Carron, Editor; assisted by Kay Carpenter, Assistant Editor; with Gary Chott supervising as Business Manager. Under these three are the editors and members of the various staffs: Art, Literature, Darkroom, Production, and Business, that help make the yearbook complete in its layout. This when completed displays our school in all its attire.

DEDICATION

In appreciation of what she has done for the betterment of Fox High School, we respectfully dedicate our 1961 Ha-Ko to Mrs. Veta Takach, friend, advisor, and teacher.

We of the yearbook staff are especially grateful to her for helping us to proofread and improve literature for the annual during the past two years. In this period she has found time to sponsor the Fox Fax, two senior classes, plus teaching a full schedule of English and one journalism class. Students of her classes almost invariably find them enjoyable.

Under her skillful guidance students are led to understand and enjoy literature. Members of her journalism class learn in an informal atmosphere the basic elements of putting together a newspaper, whether it is a metropolitan daily or a high school monthly.

Therefore, with respect and admiration the Ha-Ko staff dedicates the 1961 Ha-Ko to Mrs. Veta Takach.

EDITOR'S NOTE

Finally here is your 1961 Ha-Ko! We of the staff have written, photographed, made layouts, done art work and sent in shipments for the past nine months, until now the book is ready to turn over to you.

Our theme this year as you may have guessed from the tri-color cover and full color endsheets - is COLOR. The color of our daily school life, and of our activities.

The Ha-Ko staff would like to express its appreciation to all those who co-operated with and advised us on putting out this annual.

Now the book you have waited for is in your hands, a living COLORFUL record of the school year 1960-61. We hope you enjoy it.

Sincerely,

James Carron

JUNIOR-SENIOR

The Junior Class of Fox High School requests the pleasure of your presence at the Junior-Senior Prom
in honor of the "Class of 1960"
on Saturday, the seventh of May nineteen hundred and sixty at eight o'clock in the evening in the High School Auditorium

Springtime in the South
Fox Junior - Senior Prom
May 7, 1960

The 1960 prom was spent in a "Springtime In the South" setting. The stage was set with sophisticated white iron lawn furniture and a four tier fountain, with garlands adding color and gaiety to the scene. A foot bridge, bordered with ivy and dogwood blossoms, led the way to the garden. The band was seated before a great white southern mansion with ivy covered pillars.

This romantic setting was perfect for the Southern Belle, Miss Judy Flannigan, and the Southern Gent, Mr. Donald Graves.

"THE MAGIC TOUCH"

THE MAGIC TOUCH, the second annual Fox High School play, presented April 29 and 30, was hailed as a rousing success by all in attendance. The play, a three act farce, featured as its theme the perennially popular plot of the ugly duckling blossoming into a beautiful swan. In this case the ugly duckling is a sixteen year old, football playing tomboy, who, in the face of tragedy, transforms herself into a lovely, feminine, young woman. By so doing she delights her social climbing mother, astonishes her henpecked father, and gains the respect and admiration of her gang.

The Board of Education of Fox School consists of six men who are elected by the voters of this school district. It is their job to set the tax levy, to take charge of the finances, and to plan the operation of the school.

Since the beginning of Fox School there have been many men who have worked as members of our Board of Education. They have secured better facilities and educational aids for the school. These men have helped make Fox School and Fox High School, in particular, one of the outstanding schools in Jefferson County.

SENIOR FAREWELL

As we leave to encounter the problems which we will face as we enter the world, many thoughts race through our minds.

We are reluctant, of course, to leave the old familiar patterns of life, and yet we are eager to try our wings in college, the armed forces, marriage, and the business world.

As we venture to every corner of the country, and even the world, each of us will carry fond memories of high school hops, proms, homecomings, pep rallies, sports events, assemblies, class and club meetings, concerts, favorite classes, the "Senior Steps", and all of the activities which have made our high school days rich with wonderful experiences.

These experiences have helped to prepare us for our futures, and we are grateful to those who have been instrumental in this preparation.

Homecoming weekend was filled with excitement and suspense. The weekend started with a bonfire, at which was heard scattered singing and cheers, building spirit for the game the following day with St. Thomas Aquinas. Following a parade and an exciting F.H.S. victory, everyone settled down somewhat and attended the annual football coronation where they saw Miss Judy Gruenewald crowned Homecoming Queen of 1960.

The Homecoming events will long be remembered by everyone who attended them.

A New Queen

Amid a lovely "Hearts and Flowers" setting, under a crepe paper festooned ceiling, in the rosy glow of red spotlights, Miss Kay Carpenter was crowned Basketball Queen of 1961. Preceded by a representative of Retiring Queen Phyllis Smith and four special maids, Miss Carpenter stepped from behind the back drop a radiant, smiling queen, to meet Escort Curt Seward. She proceeded up the aisle, made a deep bow, and as the climax, knelt before the retiring queen who relinquished the crown and the throne, making Miss Carpenter Basketball Queen of 1961.

The Court then joined in the Royal Dance.

Planned Progress is a program sponsored annually by Union Electric, in order to increase high school students' interest in community planning.

Students have fifteen minutes in which to present their program, and may use such visual aids as maps, charts, diagrams or graphs to illustrate needed community improvements. Each school may have a maximum of five students to give the oral presentation, although an unlimited number may work on visual aids.

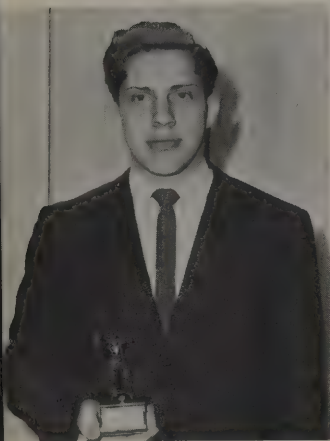

The students who are judged to have the best program are awarded a full day educational trip paid for by Union Electric. This trip is inclusive of all students who worked on the program.

Head football coach Gerald O'Connor in his first year at Fox High School brought the warriors home to a 3-5 record in the 1960 season, which was the third season of varsity competition for Fox High.

Handicapped sizeably by last year's graduation which took a total of ten lettermen, and a small line, which averaged only 175 pounds, the Warriors played fine ball.

The most memorable game of the season was the Homecoming Game against St. Thomas Aquinas in which the Warriors were able to crash through with two touchdowns in the final three minutes of play to rob the Trojans of a shut-out, and defeat the St. Thomas eleven, 14-7.

Throughout the season the Warriors were aided by the accurate place kicking of Fullback Joe Cardona (later named player of the year), the excellent passing of Quarterback Curt Seward, and the brilliant running of Halfback Dick Morrow.

Sixty-six total points were scored by the Warriors during the season and Curt Seward was high scorer with thirty points, twenty-four of which were scored in the F.H.S. victory over Mehlville. Joe Cardona was also a high scorer with a total of eighteen points.

The Warriors' unquenchable spirit and determined improvement highlighted the 1960 football season, and with ten lettermen returning next year F.H.S. fans can anticipate another thrilling season in 1961.

This year's "B" football team, composed of freshmen and sophomore boys, compiled a record of two wins and three losses. They gained valuable experience during the season which will prove useful in future years.

The Warriors began their varsity basketball season in the Hillsboro Tournament. They stomped Ste. Genevieve, lost to Hillsboro, and then came back to defeat DeSoto to win the third place trophy in the tournament.

Although the Warriors 6-13 record was not as good as anticipated, they played fine ball and certainly were not outclassed as the scores indicate.

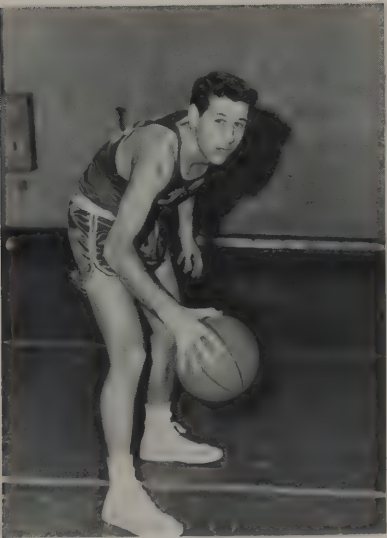

The most exciting game of the season was with our arch rival, Herky. The score stayed very close throughout the game until the Warriors broke loose in the last few minutes of play to defeat Herky, 57-51.

High point men for the season were Curt Seward who racked up 263 points, Wayne Watkins with 196, and Dave Nappier with 162. A total of 1,128 points were scored by the Warriors during the season compared with 1,197 points scored by their opponents.

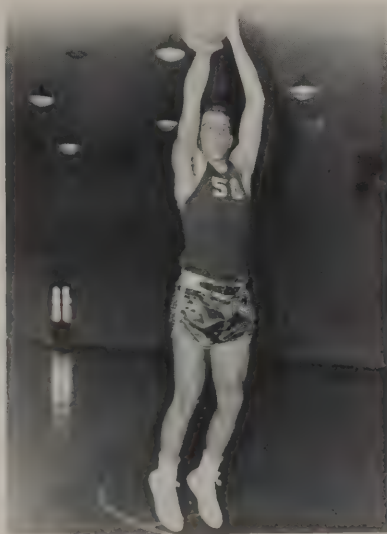

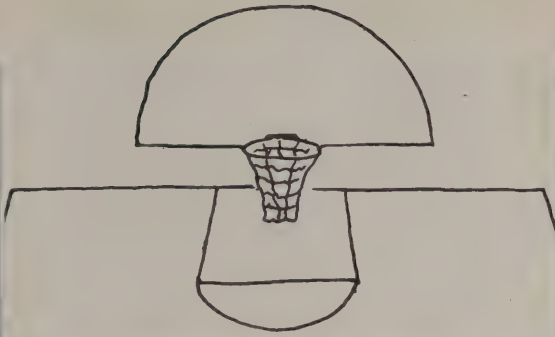

With five returning varsity lettermen, F. H. S. fans can look forward to a better season next year.
